SILVER CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

World silver conditions were the subject of a discussion at the year dinner of the Tonopah Silver Miners' Association held last week. The speaker, J. W. Booth, editor and manager of the Bonanza, stated that the silver market was a buoyant one, and that the price of silver was at its highest point in many years.

Booth also stated that the silver market was a buoyant one, and that the price of silver was at its highest point in many years.

EUROPE'S SAD AWAKENING

Another international banker has returned from Europe after a few months' study of the situation in that continent. He reports that the situation is a sad one, and that the people of Europe are awakening to the fact that they are in a sad state.

Booth also stated that the silver market was a buoyant one, and that the price of silver was at its highest point in many years.

TARIFF NATIONAL ISSUE

In our case Hancock was right in declaring that the tariff is a national issue. It is local in the sense that the congressman whose district is affected by the tariff is a local issue. But the tariff is a national issue, and it is a national issue that we must face.
